The fu neral will probably be held Saturday morning at St. Mary's Church. Fire which broke out Thursday night about ten o'clock at Mrs. Carrie Bell's farm on the Newton road destroyed the barn, much hay and grain, a wagon and a mowing machine; also a shed adjoining the barn. Only by hard work was the house saved. The loss, which is estimated at about $5,000, is partially covered by insurance. It is thought the fire started on the barn floor near the granary. With the assistance of neighbors the livestock and many of the farming tools belonging to E. Rock, who carries on the farm, were saved. Fire Chief F. J.
